We collect your personal data from you on commencement of your employment and ongoing throughout employment.

We also collected the following personal data from third parties:

*your employer reference is secured from your previous employer identified by yourself;
Your character reference is secured from a suitable individual identified by yourself.*

Your rights in respect of your personal data

You have the right to request access to your personal data, amendments to it and for it to be deleted.

Further information about those rights along with your right to withdraw any consent you've given or object to our processing your data can be found in our data protection policy, available within the employee handbook or by clicking 'here'. That policy also includes who to speak with if you have any queries about our approach to processing your personal data.

How and when we use your personal data

We're committed to using your personal data responsibly and lawfully. We only use your data to fulfil our duties as your employer, for example to provide you with updates regarding your employment or benefits.

Your personal data is stored within the UK, EU and North America (Google Drive for Business.) To help us to maintain the accuracy of the personal data that we hold please let us know if we hold out of date or inaccurate information about you.

We use accepted standards of technology and security to protect your personal data and have collected confirmation from all suppliers that they adhere to UK GDPR legislation.

Sharing your personal data

There are times where we will share your personal data with a third party. They are:

- With the Disclosure and Barring Service to obtain an enhanced DBS check, required for all employees under our CQC registration;
- With the Care Quality Commission (CQC) as part of our legal regulatory requirements;
- With BrightPay, our payroll provider, to allow us to process your payroll through a HMRC recognised system;
- With Goldvision, our client Management System, a password protected site;
- With Google Drive for Business, where we store all our electronic files;
- With NEST or Peoples Pension, where you meet the eligibility criteria, under our obligation to provide a workplace pension;
- With our insurers, when required to report an incident or claim.
- When required by law.

For how long will we keep your personal data

Our 'retention policy' lists the type of data we process and for how long it is kept. You can access that policy by clicking 'here'. If you would like us to delete your data and we don't have a lawful reason to retain it you can make a deletion request by clicking 'here' or writing to Helen Brown, Data Protection Officer, 20 Central Avenue, West Bridgford NG2 5GR.

How you can access your personal data

You can ask us for a copy of the personal data that we hold on you by either clicking 'here' or writing to Helen Brown on the above address. We'll ask you for copies of two types of approved identity in order to process your request (such as a passport and driving licence). You can also ask us to make corrections to data you consider to be inaccurate by clicking 'here' or again writing to Helen Brown.
